Occasionally certain circumstances may dictate that we will be unable to deliver your product using our standard delivery service. Should an external specialist team be required we will advise you in advance of any additional costs you may incur before we proceed with your delivery. A copy of this delivery and installation checklist should be returned to your store at the time of placing your order. Please retain a copy to assist you with preparing for your Aga installation.

If you have any queries once your order has been placed please feel free to call our installations team for further assistance. The team can be contacted Monday-Friday 9am till 5pm on 01159 466 151

If a delay is required to your installation date we need a minimum of five working days notice before the agreed date. Failure to provide this notice may incur a charge.
